RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That in view of the fact that the demand for trained leadership is so great, and that the numbers at present in our denominational colleges are so small, especially in the theological departments, we recommend that churches encourage worthy young men to go into the ministry and support them as far as possible.

2. That the Association continue to help worthy students taking their theological training at Shaw University.

3. That we increase our educational fund for general educational purposes.

4. That we do more for Foreign Missions.

5. That each church endeavor to have a Woman's Auxiliary organized.

6. That the Association whenever possible shall aid churches within its bounds, struggling to build or help to support a minister, as a part of its Home Mission program.

7. That in many of the churches there are those who are qualified to assist in teaching God's Word; hence during the summer the Vacation Bible School should be instituted to run from two to three weeks.

PROCEEDINGS

The Sixty-second annual session of the Wake Baptist Association met August the 15th, 1928, with the Juniper Level Baptist Church, near McCullers, N. C., with Rev. M. W. Williams, Moderator, presiding.

Services commenced at 10:30 a.m., conducted by Revs. C. C. Jones and A. G. Seawell. Hymn No. 861 in the Baptist Hymn Book, "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," was lined by Brother Jones, sung by the congregation, following which the Scripture lesson, I Corinthians, the thirteenth chapter, was read by Brother Seawell, pastor. Rev. L. E. Johnson led in prayer.

Subsequently the Moderator gave some remarks to the audience of deep appreciation to the Heavenly Father for the exalted privilege of meeting the brethren, and in closing presented the church pastor, Rev. L. E. Johnson, of Oxford, N. C., to give the address of welcome. The message was delivered timely.

Rev. B. F. Jordan, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Wilson, N. C., in the absence of Rev. J. W. Powell, of Wake Forest, who was to have responded, came forth and in choice words responded to the message of welcome.

The Association's clerk then read the names of the Committee on Enrollment. (See Committees.) Following a song, led by Rev. H. D. Eaton, "I'm a Child of the King."

Rev. H. D. Eaton, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Zebulon, N. C., accompanied by Revs. Duffie Lewis and M. L. Dawson, ascended the rostrum to preach the annual sermon. After the lining of Hymn No. 417 in the Baptist Hymn Book and singing with the congregation by Brother Lewis, and reading the Twenty-Fourth Psalm, and prayer offered to God by Rev. Dawson, Brother Eaton chose for a text, II Timothy, 1:12, "I Know Him Whom I Have Believed." His subject being "Personal Knowledge of Christ." Among other things the speaker declared that, "True religion is of Heavenly origin and is ever at variance with the principles of this world." The message was discussed from the following angles: Subjugation of Christians to trials and persecutions, Scriptural knowledge and saving knowledge. At the close of the impressive message the speaker led in singing the song, "Take Your Burdens to the Lord and Leave Them There."

The Moderator's chair was then taken by the Vice-Moderator, Rev. B. F. Jordan, who presented to the attentive audience the honored Moderator, Rev. M. W. Williams, to deliver his annual address. The address of the Moderator was strong, comprehensive and inspirational (see address). A committee on the message was then named (see committee).

As visitors, Revs. L. W. Wertz, pastor First Baptist Church, Hamlet, N. C.; C. C. Staton, pastor Martin Street Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C.; D. S. Saulter, High Point, N. C., and C. C. Boone, returned missionary from Africa, were introduced to the house, from whom came some brief and timely remarks.

Rev. G. A. Mial pronounced the benediction.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Beginning at two o'clock, Revs. J. A. Jones and W. M. Smith conducted an inspirational praise service with the Forty-sixth Psalm being read as a Scripture lesson by Brother Smith.

The various board reports were submitted by the following persons:

Executive Board—Rev. M. W. Williams. Adopted. (See report.)

Home Mission—Dr. A. W. Pegues. This report made an appeal to the Association to aid pastors financially, whose salary given by the church over which he presides, is insufficient to maintain himself and family. Approved.

Foreign Mission—Rev. Duffie Lewis, who urged the delegation to enlarge the means given from time to time in their churches for missions abroad, inform their church and community folk of the vast needs of the foreign mission field and who its immediate workers are, as far as known, thus stimulating a deeper desire to help them.

Sunday-School—Rev. Geo. S. Stokes. Adopted. (See report.)

Ministerial—Dr. N. F. Roberts, who among other things averred that "To hinder a person sent by God is exceedingly dangerous." Reading in the correct fashion is interpretating the Scripture. He closed his brief and profound message by stating that "The Wake Association was the first organization in North Carolina to adopt the Ministerial Board system." Report approved.

Sane Evangelism was ably presented to the house at this particular time by Rev. John L. Tilley, Ph.B., instructor in Religious Education, Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C. The speaker called attention to many eyes of the world today are closed to Truth; hence, the program of the church has in a large measure become selfish. In the large, the able and young divine set forth the following points and justifiably discussed them: (1) unethical methods in revival meetings by preachers, (2) the methods of Jesus, (3) a clearer apprehension of Christ's program is witnessed today by His followers than was realized by those when Christ was on earth. The message was sagacious and highly inspirational.

The names of the following committees were read: Resolutions, Place of Next Meeting, Obituary and New Churches.

Rev. W. C. Somerville, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Mt. Olive, N. C., and Brother C. E. Lightner, undertaker, Raleigh, N. C., took an offering to the amount of $4.35.

Benediction by Rev. D. Lewis.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT SESSION

About the hour of seven-thirty o'clock, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Association with its president, Mrs. B. E. Barrett, Raleigh, N. C., presiding, there was a delightful program rendered by the Juniper Level Church Auxiliary, consisting of solos, essays and declamations.

Rev. A. T. Price, the ex-pastor of the church, and present pastor of the Good Hope Baptist Church, Wendell, N. C., accompanied by Revs. D. S. Saulter, W. T. Farror and Brother T. B. Smith, mounted the rostrum to preach. Subsequent to preliminaries, composed of singing Hymn No. 487 in Baptist Hymnal, "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," lined by Brother Smith, and a fervent prayer offered by Rev. Farror, Rev. Price arose and announced his text, Exodus 32:26, "Moses stood in the gate and said who is on the Lord's side." The deep soul-stirring and sin-denouncing message delivered by Brother Price was received by a large audience present. Songs, "Roll, Jordan, Roll," and "Lord, Let the Train Run Easy," were harmoniously sung by the congregation.

Rev. Saulter and Rev. J. A. Jones made some remarks along the line of their Christian experience in brief, following the which Revs. C. C. Boone and W. C. Somerville took an offering to the amount of $7.72, while Rev. Phil Hedgepeth led in singing, "Soon I Am Going to Heaven."

Some announcements were made by the pastor and benediction pronounced by Rev. J. C. Love.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

At eleven o'clock Rev. G. A. Mial opened praise service by singing the song, "There Is A Fountain Filled With Blood," found at No. 381 in the Baptist Hymnal, and Rev. O. G. Watkins read as a Scripture lesson a portion of Romans, chapter twelve, with prayer following by Brother O. V. Carpenter, of Friendship Chapel.

Echoes from various parts of the field were given by the following persons: Rev. W. H. Rogers, Riley Hill; Bro. W. B. S. Harris, Oak City; Bro. T. S. Stokes, Stokes Chapel; Bro. Jas. Ballentine, Holly Springs; Rev. W. C. Somerville, Shaw University; Rev. S. S. Hall, Malaby's; Bro. W. A. Foster, Wakefield; Bro. J. Williams, Martin Street, Raleigh; Bro. Chas. Snipes, Oak City; Bro. Debnam, Union Grove; Sister A. McCoy, Elevation; Sister Powell, Oberlin Baptist; Bro. H. R. Snow, Springfield; Rev. G. A. Mial, First Baptist, Raleigh; Rev. J. W. Harriston, Tupper Memorial; Bro. T. B. Smith, Juniper; Rev. A. M. Wiggins, Elizabeth and Pilot; and Bro. J. A. Gresham, Zebulon. These brief talks from the different speakers stated the spiritual development of their respective fields.

The Church's Responsibility In An Efficient Ministry, was impressively discussed by Dr. A. W. Pegues.

Dr. S. L. McDowell, pastor of the White Rock Baptist Church, Durham, N. C., was presented to the house to discuss, "Financing the Church." The speaker's message hinged around four main points, namely: (1) on whom the financial program depends in the church, (2) the urgent need for a sound business policy in the church, (3) the church's successful financial program is guided by this program found in the Word of God, (4) the value of the honor roll of financial members in the church. The instructive message of the hour came to a close by urging the entire delegation to study and use the New Testament way in financing God's church.

The Church Paper and Denominational Development as a subject was brought to the ears of the audience in a brief and yet comprehensive way by Dr. N. F. Roberts who outlined mainly the following: First, the paper gives strength mentally and information. Secondly, a fraternal spirit is cultivated in reading the paper. Thirdly, the Union Reformer is a means of uniting our people.

As visitors for the first time, Revs. V. C. Williams, of Durham, N. C., and J. A. Whitted, of the New Hope Baptist Association, were present and in well chosen words encouraged the work.

An invitation was extended to sinners to come to the front for prayer by Dr. C. C. Boone, missionary, and one, J. W. Johnson, came forward, who, under the influence of the Spirit in the hour of prayer, led by Dr. S. L. McDowell, was converted and instructed to a church of his choice for membership. A closing selection was sung very beautifully by the congregation, "I Will Trust in the Lord," and Rev. J. C. Love pronounced the benediction.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

The Moderator called the house to order at two o'clock.

Rev. Phil Hedgepeth led in singing "Soon I'm Going to Heaven," Rev. V. C. Williams read Psalm Ninety-two as a Scripture lesson and J. W. Harriston, of Shaw University, offered prayer.

Dean A. W. Pegues, Ph.D., of the divinity school of Shaw University, Raleigh, N. C., in an effective way, pointed out some vital facts from the subject, "The Church's Responsibility for an Efficient Ministry." In part the able divine said, "Some ministers take the religious life more as a joke and sport affair. From the standpoints, (1) the minister as a Christian character builder, (2) the minister as an interpreter of the people and their needs, (a) inspire the youth today, (3) an ever and sincere desire for soul-winning. The subject was treated and brought to a close with an urge to the church messengers present to give unstintedly of their means and call on the home folk to train worthy young men for the Gospel ministry. Before returning to his seat Dr. Pegues submitted the Treasurer's report with the auditor's approval attached.

Adopted. (See report.)

The report of the Committee on Place of Next Meeting was made.

Adopted. (See report.)

The Committees of Officers, Resolutions, Moderator's Address, Temperance and New Churches all made their respective reports which were adopted. (See reports.)

The Woman's Auxiliary to the Association then submitted an excellent report of $73.55 for the annual session.

Following the reports of the Committees on Obituary and Finance, the adoption of the same, and singing the song, "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," Brother T. B. Smith pronounced the benediction.

EXTRA SESSION

In the Tupper Memorial Baptist Church, Raleigh, N. C., on the third Sunday in March, 1928, the sixth extra session of the Wake Baptist Association convened, presided over by the Moderator, Rev. M. W. Williams.

Services began at eleven o'clock, conducted by Dr. G. W. Moore and Rev. G. A. Mial. Following the beautiful song selection by the church choir, "The Church's One Foundation," and the reading of the Scripture lesson by Dr. Moore, Isaiah, chapter 55, Rev. Geo. S. Stokes led in prayer.

The Moderator gave some helpful remarks following another song, "Blessed Assurance," and presented Dr. A. W. Pegues, dean of the Theological Department, Shaw University, who ably discussed, "Secondary Schools and State Missions." A plea was made for unstinted support on the part of the Wake Association of the All-Baptist Celebration, July 31st to August 4th, 1928, to be held in Raleigh. (1) Schools serve as a means of uniting our people. (2) Baptist secondary accredited high schools are needed to indoctrinate the youth and help give them the Christ spirit. (a) One strong school between Raleigh and Weldon, N. C., is needed of this type, averred the speaker. "Mission means to send at some distance." The powerful message was closed by an urge to the audience to prepare for the time and help to hasten it, when the State Convention shall put strong young men in various parts of its land to build up "The Kingdom" interest.

A duet by Shaw students, directed by Mrs. Abby Logan, "I Come to Thee," was very beautifully sung.

The Committee on Finance was named as follows: Rev. A. A. Morrissey, Bros. W. H. Peace, S. M. McCullers, and Guyon Perry.

Dean W. S. Turner, of Shaw, then ascended the rostrum to present "The Needs of Shaw University," conjointly with a sermon. He chose for a text Psalms 133:1. The ancient writers' conception of union and its value was in part, declared by the speaker.

Shaw needs to (1) relate its life to the people, (2) to give better teachers to the rural districts, (3) Shaw needs to give better preachers to the hungry world, (4) Shaw needs your sons and daughters and you will get them back with the New Idea. By the Profound Thinker a message of great worth was given to an attentive and large audience.

Subsequently Rev. M. L. Dawson, the church's pastor, offered prayer and the congregation sang, "Since Jesus Came Into My Heart." Following a prevailing motion to arrange the associational territory into four districts, each to be canvassed by a manager who would see to it that his district feed one day during the All-Baptist Celebration, the church ushers took a collection for the church.

Rev. G. A. Mial presented the Union Reformer and made an appeal for subscriptions.

A Committee on Territory Division was then named by the Moderator as follows: Revs. Geo. S. Stokes, M. L. Dawson, Bros. W. H. Ray, H. R. Snow, and O. V. Carpenter.

Benediction by Rev. C. C. Boone.

AFTERNOON SESSION

The afternoon session was held in the First Baptist Church, opened by congregational singing and prayer.

Mrs. B. E. Barrett, president of the Woman's Auxiliary, having been introduced to speak by the Moderator, gave a brief message in the interest of the Auxiliary, urging the constituency to give.

An outline of the work aimed for the All-Baptist Celebration was presented in brief by Dr. O. S. Bullock, the church pastor, (1) To become acquainted with each other as Baptists. (2) Our aim is to organize the magnificent army of people.

The Committee on Districts then made its report. Adopted. (See reports.)

Dr. Benjamin Brawley spoke on "Shaw's Contribution to the State and Nation." "Three out of every five persons who are Christians," declared Dr. Brawley, "belong to the Baptist denomination." In the further preliminaries reference was made to The Home Mission College Review, managed by Professor F. P. Payne, of Shaw. The message was far-reaching and hinged around the following points: (1) Shaw as a central figure to hold together the Baptists. (a) The divinity school at Shaw has been a mighty force for good. (2) Many high school teachers products of Shaw and their value to the people. (3) The necessity of trained teachers to instruct the youth of our day. (4) Shaw's interest not nationalistic but inter-national.

A selection by the Shaw chorus, "Oh Sing of Thy Salvation," was very harmoniously sung and a collection of $107.34 was taken by Revs. O. S. Bullock, D.D., and H. D. Eaton, B.Th.

The Roll of Churches was then called by the clerk and response made by the messengers to the committee on finance which was followed by a rendition of the chorus, "We Praise His Name."

Dr. C. C. Boone, returned missionary from Africa, was introduced to the house who gave a very comprehensive message of the work being done on the mission field.

The Woman's Auxiliary made its report of finance. Adopted. (See report of finance.)

Subsequent to singing, "Blest Be the Tie," by the congregation, Dr. Brawley pronounced the benediction.

REPORT OF SUNDAY SCHOOL BOARD

Brother Moderator and fellow co-workers in Christ Jesus through the Wake Baptist Association, greetings:

The Sunday-School Board of this august body desires to hereby submit the following report for your earnest consideration:

There are forces laboring unceasingly among humanity, and especially the young people, endeavoring to dynamite faith in God and His eternal Word, which as a result will ultimately retard the advancing forces of the church against all unrighteousness. By reason of this existing satanic influence and in view of the fact that the Sunday-school is the Bible-teaching department of the church, we, therefore, recommend:

1. That the pastor, who is the spiritual advisor of the church, manifest a deeper interest in the Sunday-school and know that the "Word of Truth" is propagated and rightly divided.

2. Records show that twenty-six million young people in this Christian America who today are receiving no religious instruction whatsoever. By reason of this deplorable existing condition we count it highly needful to continue the soul-winning efforts in the Sunday-school, and gather added agencies to bring this vast number of persons to Christ.

3. That all officers in the Sunday-school meet the hearty endorsement of the church.

4. That each church pastor, with the full co-operation of the Sunday-school officers properly arrange the pupils of the school in classes by ages according to the present-day requirements for classification.

5. Reading the proper literature is essential for added information in advancing the church school. Therefore, we urge each church to help its school, where it hasn't such, obtain a library, thus making available to the Sunday-school workers suitable books for reading and reference, as a means to a better Sunday-school.

(a) We endorse The Teacher, edited by Dr. S. N. Vass, of Nashville, Tennessee, and commend it to all Sunday-school workers.

6. That the officers of each church see to it that their church school sends an offering for Shaw University each month during the year, to Dr. A. W. Pegues, Raleigh, N. C.

7. Because of their helpfulness in Bible instruction, we recommend a weekly meeting for Sunday-school teachers wherever feasible.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. S. STOKES, Chairman.

Since our last annual meeting we have examined and recommended for ordination, Brother W. H. Rogers, of the Riley Hill Church, whom the church has ordained and whose name is to be added to the list of ordained ministers of the Association.
